BIO

As a Christian Women's Speaker and Certified Image Consultant, Donna Roland is passionate about helping women embrace their God-given beauty. Donna has endured various trials in her life, and she uses them to encourage other women. However, ten years into her career of personal coaching and speaking to women's groups, a breast cancer diagnosis inspired her to create a new presentation: Get up. Dress up. Never give up.

She uses her diagnosis, struggles, and survivorship to inspire other women to find strength and joy in every situation. Using herself as an example, Donna encourages other women to overcome any setback with an even stronger comeback.

With her Southern charm and humor, Donna offers a fun and interactive presentation to help women find hope while loving the person in the mirror... because you are a reflection of God's perfection!

Get Up
This raw and inspirational presentation centers on drawing strength from God. Donna's passion is to empower women to conquer the battle, whatever it is. She

Dress Up
As the presentation evolves into dressing up, Donna has fun livening the crowd with fashion. This interactive segment allows each woman to select her most complimentary clothes and styles.

Never Give Up
The presentation ends with a focus circle with a focus on your best, finding your inner beauty, and never giving up.

“ I love Donna's presentation. She had her return time and time again. She helps us discover our best dress for our body types, she has inner beauty as a daughter. Donna is an inspiration to us all.

*From a heart filled with grace and veins filled with glitter,
Donna*
