October is Breast Cancer Awareness month. If your group is looking for a Survivor's story with added fun learning about discovering your best colors and styles for your body shape and encouragement for whatever you're going through, I would love to talk to you!

After my breast cancer journey, God placed a message "Get Up, Dress Up, Never Give Up" on my heart and I love sharing with others so we can all learn to love the woman in our mirror!

I also have spots open for fall and winter and am even booking for Spring 2026. I would love to talk to you about speaking at your next event!
